

Ohlone College Spanish 101A Syllabus Reading Requirement and information

____ I understand that the Spanish 101A Syllabus and Course information are located on our class webpage at <http://www.drlemon.com/Spanish101A.html>

____ The Spanish 101A Course policies on

- Attendance
- Grading
- Online Lecture Requirement
- Participation Requirement
- as well as information on class times & locations, text books and more are found by clicking on Syllabus : Course Information link in the navigation bar:

<http://www.drlemon.com/101A/outline.html>

____ I understand that our Class Calendar lists the textbook readings, online homework, online lecture (the Grammar Notes readings), the online games & activities, quizzes, tests, projects and class topics : <http://www.drlemon.com/101A/horario.html>

____ I understand I need to check the Horario daily to find what will be covered each day in class and that I need to click on the links to review the material on the webpage as well as read the listed pages in the text prior to coming to class. This way I can participate in class activities and receive credit for Participation and Projects.

____ I understand our class uses a Private Facebook Group for discussions, resources and Webcam projects and that this is a required feature of the course.

I have reviewed the syllabus online and understand the course policies
